LORDON, 5th December. A dispatch to the Standard from Vienna says that the marriage of the Princess Elizabeth and Baron Spigfried-Battenheim took place to-day in the presence of the respective families. The Princess and Baron met at a court ball in Munich and fell in love. In spite of all entreaties of her relatives the Princess recused to give him up, although the Prince Regent Luitpold, de-cidedly opposed the alliance, and in or-der to break off the match removed Baron Seigfreid-Battenheim, who is a lieutenant in the Bavarian army, from Munich to Motz. Finally. Emperor Francis Joseph, grandfather of the Princess on the maternal side, interceded in her behalf with the Prince Regent, who at last gave a rejuctant consent to the match. The Princess was to have been betrothed to Archduke Fordinand d'Este as soon as he returned from his recent journey around the world.
